ARRANGEMENT OF DETAILS UNDER WAY

For Peace Conference At Our National Capital.

REPRESENTATIVES ARE NAMED

Marquis Ito Represents Japan, While M. Nelidoff Will Look After Russia's Interests—Whole World is Looking Toward Washington.

Washington, June 19.—Impressive in dignity and number will be the missions which Russian and Japan will send to the Washington Conference for although the plenipotentiaries will be limited two or three complete missions with their advisors and attaches and secretaries will each, it is expected, number 12 or more persons.

Japan's plenipotentiaries probably will be accompanied by an army and a navy officer of high rank, who will act as military advisors to the plenipotentiaries.

MARQUIS ITO.

In addition there will be secretaries and attaches, some of them from the diplomatic service, some of the foreign members who will act as translators and secretaries. Russia will probably send a similar mission though perhaps not so large and both the Russian ambassador and the Japanese minister at Washington will place at the disposal of the respective missions their secretaries and attaches.

The Washington government will furnish a suitable place of meeting for the conference and as soon as a date for its convening is fixed arrangements for quarters for the two missions will be made by the Russian and Japanese envoys here. There have been so many other important details to be settled that the state department has not yet fixed upon offices for the conference. In addition to the main conference room, retiring rooms, offices for secretaries and a reception room will be needed. Either the

If M. Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador at Paris, comes to Washington as the ranking Russian plenipotentiary his rank will equal that of Marquis Ito. At first there was some doubt in the minds of the Japanese as to whether M. Nelidoff possessed sufficient rank for a mission of such importance accorded the Washington conference. Russia, however, at this juncture let it be known that the Russian ambassador at Paris ranked even the Russian minister for foreign affairs.

Moreover, it was pointed out that as the personal representatives of his sovereign a Russian ambassador could be ranked only by a prince of the royal family. Japan has not, of course, objected to the selection of M. Nelidoff, but in view of her expressed intention to select two or three "distinguished personages" she is desirous that Russia choose as plenipotentiaries men of rank and statesmanship who possess the confidence not only of their own government, but of the other powers.

LAST DAY OF WAR GAME.

Admiral Dickins' Fleet Attacks Fort Monroe about Daybreak.

Fort Monroe, June 19.—The last day of the war game opened with an attack on Fort Monroe at Dawn by the destroyers and the gunboats of Admiral Dickins' fleet.

Just before dark and daylight there is a brief period when conditions are most favorable for offensive naval operations, it being too light for the searchlights to be effectively operated and too dark to see without them.

These conditions were taken advantage of by Admiral Dickins this morning and three of his destroyers and two gunboats crept close to the walls of the fort before they were discovered An incoming steamship also gave protection to the mosquito fleet which banked itself in the lee of the big ship and floated close in before being seen.

The fusillade was brief but lively, and at its conclusion the offending craft departed toward the capes.

The squadron is visible in the distance and the officers of artillery expect to end in a fusillade at noon.

Fatal Street Car Collision.

New York, June 19.—In a collision at Tihrty-sixth street early today between a Third avenue street car and a United States mail wagon the driver of the latter was fatally injured. More than a dozen passengers, many of them women, were thrown from the car and hurt. The mail wagon and car were going in the same direction. at Thirty-sixth street the wagon suddenly swung into the car tracks and the heavy trolley struck it. The wagon was crushed to pieces. Thomas Tandy, the driver, was hurled into the air and his skull crushed. The car was thrown across the track and all the passengers were thrown to the pavement. Fortunately none of them was fatally injured.

Lost Life on Wager.

El Paso, June 19.—As a result of a wager that he could swim the Rio Grande, swollen with floods, quicker than a friend Salvador Rivas, father of five children and a well known Mexican citizen, lost both the bet and his life. A crowd watched the swimming race, and while near the middle of the stream opposite the custom house on the American side, Rivas was caught by a terrible eddy. The other contestant, Urbana Sanchez, brother of the secretary to Governor M. Abumada of the state of Jalisco, narrowly escaped death. Rivas admitted before entering the contest that he might drown.

Arrested By Customs Inspector.

New York, June 19.—Ramon Rosalles, agent for a gold mining company had been arrested as he was leaving the Mexican steamship Monterey. He was taken in charge by a custom inspector after a box full or rings had been taken out of a coat which Rosalles carried on his arm. The rings were set with precious stones believed to be worth several thousand dollars. Rosalles said he had intended to send the rings to Italy at once and thought it unnecessary to declare them for duty, nevertheless, he was locked up

TEAMSTERS STRIKE MAY BE SETTLED

Conference Arranged To Consider Employers Terms.

GRAND JURY PROBING STRIKE

Claim Is Made that It Is the Result of a Conspiracy Against One of Chicago's Largest Firms—Will Break Away From Shea.

Chicago, June 19.—An early termination of the teamsters' strike was predicted by representatives of the union today after the teamsters' joint council had arranged for a special meeting of that body next Monday night, when a new strike committee will be appointed. The personnel of the new strike committee, it is said, will be antagonistic to the continuation of the present struggle. One of the first moves of the board, it is said, will be to seek a new conference with the employers at which a settlement proposal, greatly modified in terms, will be offered.

A demand for the settlement of the teamsters' strike is expected to be framed before night at a meeting of anti-Shea delegates in the teamsters' joint council. Several leaders of the drivers are alleged to have been broken away from the strike leader, President C. P. Shea, and arranged a caucus at which they plan to canvass the situation and secure pledges enough for the calling off of the strike, and secure pledges enough for the calling off of the strike, and to go before th eteamsters' joint council Monday with assurances of success.

George F. Golden, who a number of others was until recently a stanch Shea adherent, it developed today is the one who made the motion to the council providing for a new committee to be appointed at Monday night's meeting. Golden is the business agent of the packing house teamsters' union and former president of the teamsters' joint council. Among those who are counted upon to attend the caucus are representatives of the Ice Wagon Drivers', furniture movers, express drivers, commission drivers, truck teamsters and several members of the teamsters' national executive board.

Admission is made by state's Attorney Healy that the grand jurors have found important evidence apparently corroborating the report that the strike is partly, at least, the result of a conspiracy directed against the firm of Montgomery, Ward & Co. by other employers and labor leaders involving the payment of $30,000 in instalments of $10,000 and $20,000. If an indictment is voted as a result, the alleged conspirators are likely to be charged with being responsible for one or more murders growing out of attacks of so called "wrecking crews."

To Observe Sun's Eclipse.

San Jose, Cal., June 19.—Professor W. W. Campbell of Lick observatory, accompanied by other scientists, will go on an expedition to observe the total eclipse of the sun which will occur August 30. Three expeditions will be sent out by Lick observatory, one to Spain, one to Egypt and one to Labrador. Professor Campbell will head the expedition to Spain, accompanied by Professor Perrine, of Lick observatory, and another assistant from Martin, O., college. The point of observation will be between Madrid and Saragossa. A complete apparatus, including cameras and spectroscope will be taken along. It will take six weeks to get them mounted and adjusted, the work being wholly photographic.

Woman Saves Negro's Neck.

Reading, Pa., June 19.—Samuel Greason a negro, has been acquitted of the murder of John Edwards. Mrs. Kate Edwards, wife of the murdered man, whose testimony convicted Greason over three years ago, completely exonerated him. Edwards was murdered nearly four years ago, and Greason was arrested several months later. His death warrant was issued ten times, and his case has developed into one of the most remarkable murder trials in this state.

CRIME CHARGED TO RAWLINGS

Statement of Man Implies that Preacher is Guilty.

Valdosta, Ga., June 19.—The latest and most important development in the charges against J. G. Rawlings, charged with instigating his three sons Jesse, Milton and Leonard—to kill W. L. Carter's children, came out today in a statement which Tim McDonald, a neighbor, makes to the solicitor general.

McDonald is the man who cut Carter's throat several months ago in a court room because of a statement which Carter repeated.

McDonald has also been Rawlings' warm friend. He says that he knows circumstances about the case that he can not conscientiously keep and his statement places the crime upon the Rawlings boys, in stigated by their father, without doubt. He says that Rawlings came to his house the night after the tragedy and tried to borrow money, supposedly to pay off the negroes who helped with the crime.

McDonald is in no way implicated in the conspiracy and he says that he makes the statement to contribute what he can toward solving the mystery of the murder. Sheriff Passmore has gone after the negros who were name das the helpers.

The negro in jail, Frank Turner, is said to have been Rawlings' agent hiring the other negroes to help in the crime.

Women Can Join Order.

Atlanta, June 19.—Begining on July 1 women will be admitted as members of Knights of Honor. This was decided upon after considerable discussion at the meeting of the supreme lodge in the convention hall of the Piedmont hotel. The committee on laws which had been instructed by the convention two days previously to look into the advisability and practicability of the matter made its report to the convention and recommended that various sections of the supreme lodge constitution be amended so as to admit women to the order.

New Roads for North State.

Raleigh, N. C., June 19.—The state charters the Johnson City Southern railway. A. B. Andrews, Henry W. Miller, F. H. Miller, of Raleigh; Alfred P. Thom, Fairfax Harrison, of Washington, D. C., and H. C. Ansley, of Alexandria, Va., are incorporators and directors. The capital stock is $350,000. The road will extend 71 miles from Marion, N. C., up the north fork of the Catawba river and down the valley of the Toe river to the Tennessee line, there to connect with a railway to Johnson City.

Georgia Labor Federation to Meet.

Atlanta, June 19.—The Georgia State Federation of Labor will convene in annual convention in this city next Wednesday in the hall of the Atlanta Federation of Trades on Forsyth street. All indications point to the largest meeting in the history of the organization. About 160 delegates, representing the various unions throughout the state, will be present. Together with delegates and their families and friends, there will be over 500 people in attendance upon the convention.

Fourteen Injured in Collision.

Birmingham, Ala., June 19.—In a collision on a crossing at East Birmingham, Ala. between an employes' train on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, and a Central of Georgia engine, the employe's train was wrecked and 14 men hurt. All are negroes, except one. None is believed to be fatally injured. The wounded men were brought to the city, and some were sent to their homes and others to the hospitals. The blame for the accident has not been fixed.

Returns Pension as Unearned.

Washington, June 19.—Commissioner of Pensions Warner has received a contribution of $1,924 to the conscience fund of the treasury. It came from a pensioner and was the total pension money drawn by him since the civil war, beginning at the rate $2 and rising to $6 a month. The identity of the pensioner is withheld. He says he "has not earned and does not deserve a pension."

EUROPEAN POWERS WILL NOT CLASH

France and Germany To Agree Regarding Morocco.

SITUATION IS A DELICATE ONE

Germany Declares She Is Now the Paramount Power in Europe and Must Be So Recognized—Tangles Will Be Straightened Out.

Washington, June 19.—Germany and France will not come to a clash over Morocco, if reassuring official cablegrams reaching Washington over night from European capitals are accurately representing the situation.

Two weeks ago the situation was exceedingly delicate. It has been believed, however, by the resignation of M. Delcasse. It can be announced that the negotiations at Paris between M. Rouvier, the new minister, for foreign affairs, and Prince Radolin, the German ambassador, are progressing slowly but "with good will on both sides" and that "things between Germany and France are moving harmoniously and it will soon be possible to straighten out existing tangles."

The Washington government is fully informed about every movement, and the feeling here in the highest official circles is not one of uneasiness.

Germany in First Place.

Berlin, June 17.—3:3 p. m.—The foreign office has, the Associated Press learns, telegraphed to Prince Von Radolin, the German ambassador at Paris, during the last day or two in a sense that will be reassuring to French apprehensions, if such were felt in the French cabinet. Germany still presses France diplomatically for her aceptance of the proposal to hold a conference of the powers on the subject of Morocco.

The undoubted disturbance of feeling in Paris over Germany's policy is not traceable to anything actually aggressive that the German government has done or is preparing to do. It is probably due to the feeling of weakness that his suddenly arisen in France; since Admiral Rojestvensky lost the sea fight and the corresponding relative increase in German confidence; since it has become evident that Russia need not ,for the present, be recokned with. The thought in the government, in the army and in the press is that Germany, in a military sense, has become master of the continent and that being so, France and every other continental power should recognize that in diplomacy Germany also has risen to the first place and must be dealt with as the paramount ower.

France May Agree to Conference.

Paris, June 17.—6 a. m.—This morning's newspapers continue to counsel calmness regarding the Moroccan difficulty and some of them even suggest the possibility that after all France may agree to the conference demanded by the sultan of Morocco under German's supervision. The Figaro asks why France should not accept a conference whose result was to decide whether the signatory powers of the Madrid congress are bound by their declarations. The Echo de Paris refers to the possibility of first reguling Franco-German interests and then agreeing to an international conference, which shall settle all difficulties.

Inquiring Into Sinking of Ships.

St. Petersburg, June 19.—Strong representations are being made here this afternoon on behalf of Great Britain as a result of the sinking of British steamers by Russian auxiliary cruisers. The British steamer St. Kilda was sunk by the Russian auxiliary cruiser Dnieper June 5 in the China sea and it was reported at the time of the battle of the sea of Japan that the Russians sank a British steamer in the straits of Formosa. Her name, however, has never been mentioned in the cable dispatches and it has been generally understood that the report grew out of the capture by the Russians of the British steamer Oldhamia, bound for Japan from New York, on March 26, in [illegible]

CARTER PRESENTS HIS CITY'S CLAIM

For the Location of That State University.

GAINESVILLE'S RECORD IS GOOD

And There is No Doubt That the People of South Florida Favor This Place—Interesting Interview—Great Pride of Gainesville in State School.

The Tampa Daily Times of the 16th instant has the following item of interest to the people of Florida just at this time:

There are few men in Florida who enjoy a wider personal acquaintance than Judge Syd L. Carter of Alachua county. This gentleman is in Tampa today on professional business, but neglects no opportunity to further the interests of Gainesville. Being interviewed on the subject of the location of the State University by the Board of Control, Judge Carter said:

"Whether there should be established a university with a very high curriculum, as is provided for in the bill passed by the last Legislature, or whether it was wiser to have a number of colleges nearer the people, is no longer an open question. The law providing for the establishment of a university has passed and it now only remains for the Governor to appoint the additional members of the Board of Control and for them to select the locality. I have heard it suggested since I have been in your beautiful and fast-growing city that it would be a good idea for Tampa to settle its troubles over the Tampa Bay hotel by presenting it to the State as a site for the University. If any city was to have the University none has better claims than Tampa and none would be more agreeable to the people of my section; but, as I understand the terms of the bill, this cannot be done. Besides, there is a strong feeling that a seaport city is not a proper place for such an institution, it being believed that the location should be in some distinctively school town, and this we confidently claim for Gainesville. For fifty years Gainesville has shown great pride in the State's school, and during that period of time there has been no criticism from any source as to the government of the pupils and no suspicion directed to the management of its funds, and when under the provision of the Buckman bill we return to the State the East Florida Seminary committed in trust to us so long ago, it will be just as we received it—without a spot or blemish. We offer the past as security for the future. Its management met the unqualified approval of the committee of the last Legislature that had the examination of the State's educational institutions in charge.

Good School Town.

"Gainesville is distinctively a school town, our people have their differences as elsewhere in heated canvasses. We have political factions, but when it comes to any matter affecting the school interests, faction hangs its diminished head, and there is not a discordant note. The school interest is in the atmosphere and everybody breathes it, and for six weeks during the scholastic year the pupils have the inestimable privilege of attending the Bible Conference and Mid-Winter Chautauqua. You people down here don't know what a treat that is, unless you could attend one session and listen to some of the lectures by mental giants who have consecrated their lives to the service of God. I do not hesitate to say that morally and religiously Gainesville is not surpassed by any place of its size on the American continent.

"While Gainesville was wet, under police regulations, the best of order prevailed, but our people felt that the barrooms should not be allowed in or near school towns, and so promptly voted them out. Some good citizens thought that it might result disastrously to trade, and some good people may yet entertain that opinion, but the people of Gainesville believe there is something higher than money. The merchants feel that there is something more to be desired than even trade, and I do not believe that there could be thirty white votes drummed up in all Gainesville precinct to reinstate the saloons.

A Religious Town.

"Gainesville is essentially a school town. Not only have her people stood loyally by the Seminary for fifty years, but they tax themselves to the limit of the law in support of a public high school which is housed in the largest and finest public school buildings in the entire State. Ask the large number of noble men and women in every section of the State who have received their education in the old and honored East Florida Seminary, if Gainesville is a good school town, and hear the ready response.

"I have seen a little indication on the part of some to consider the location of the University and female college from a money point of view. I hope and believe that the selection will not be placed on so low a plane. Any of the places that were abolished have ample buildings for the present needs of the University under the curriculum established by the bill; but if that argument is to have weight with the Board of Control, the head of our city government has published to the people of the State that Gainesville never does things by halves when it comes to schools, and that the citizens of Gainesville stand ready to make good to the State any properly ascertained difference in the value of buildings and land. But I cannot bring myself to believe that the board will make the educational interest of the State the subject of sale to the highest bidder, or let property values override other interests, and that whoever advances such arguments to the board will only injure their own case.

"I earnestly hope that South Florida will throw its powerful influence in favor of Gainesville, for the University."

Acute Rheumatism.

Deep tearing or wrenching pains, occasioned by getting wet through, worse when at rest, or on first moving the limbs, and in cold or damp weather, is cured quickly by Ballard's Snow Liniment. Oscar Oleson, Gibson City, Ill., writes, Feb. 16, 1902: "A year ago I was troubled with a pain in my back. It soon got so bad I could not bend over. One bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Off to the Mines.

Andrew Booth, a white man convicted in Justice Henderson's court at Newberry upon a charge of assault, was brought to this city Monday, commitment papers issued and the prisoner taken to the mines to serve out the six months' sentence imposed.

WOMEN WHO CHARM

HEALTH IS THE FIRST ESSENTIAL

It Helps Women to Win and Hold Men's Admiration, Respect and Love

Woman's greatest gift s the power to inspire admiration, respect, and love. There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature.

Mrs. Chas. F. Brown

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study. At the first indication of ill-health, painful or irregular menstruation, headache or backache, secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

Mrs. Chas. F. Brown, Vice-President Mothers' Club, 21 Cedar Terrace, Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For nine years I dragged through a miserable existence, suffering with inflammation and falling of the womb, and worn out with pain and weariness. I one day noticed a statement by a woman suffering as I was, but who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I determined to try it. At the end of three months I was a different woman. Every one remarked about it, and my husband fell in love with me all over again. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound built up my entire system, cured the womb trouble, and I felt like a new woman. I am sure it will make every suffering woman strong, well and happy, as it has me."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhœa, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, or nervous prostration may be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. ...D MARTIN WAS ...BY LIGHTNING

...g Prisoners to Stock- ...s Met Sudden Death.

COMPANION WAS UNHURT

While They Walked Side by Side Martin Suffered Sudden Extermination, While Companion Not Even Stunned. Remains Shipped to Old Home.

From the effects of a stroke of lightning a white convict guard by the name of Martin met instant death at the mines of the Dutton Phosphate Company, Dutton, late Saturday afternoon.

Martin and another guard were working a number of convicts, when a rain came up. They started to the stockade, and when within a short distance of the prison a heavy stroke occurred, striking Martin and killing him instantly. The other guard was walking by his side, but was not injured.

The occurrence natually threw the convicts, the majority of whom were negroes, into a state of high excitement. They were housed, however, after which the body of the dead man was taken in a wagon to Newberry, from whence it was shipped to the former home of deceased at Branford.

Martin was a young man, and had only been in the employ of the Dutton Company a short time. He was regarded as a competent man by that company, who regretted exceedingly the occurrence.

Death of General Wagner.

A dispatch from Asheville, N. C., dated June 17th, contains the announcement of the death of Gen. Arthur L. Wagner in that city on the afternoon of that day, of consumption, contracted while in the service of the United States in the Philippine Islands. His commission as general had been signed on the day of his death.

General Wagner was well and favorably known in Gainesville, where he served as commandant at the East Florida Seminary for some time, and his death will be deplored by a large number of our people.

General Wagner was a native of Illinois, being born in 1853, and was a graduate of West Point. He saw service in Cuba and the Philippines. Since his return to this country he has resided in Washington up to the time of going to Asheville for his health. He is survived by his wife, four daughters and one son, who have the sympathy of their numerous friends in this city in their affliction.

A Fine Calf.

Manager Callison is happy over the arrival of a fine Hereford bull calf at the Spring Park farm Saturday afternoon.

Sir William, as he has been named after Mr. Callison's friend, W. E. Dow, is a jewel. The calf was sired by Patrolman 4th, a prize bull of Texas which has taken many premiums. The dam is Opal 2d, a two-year old World's Fair heifer from Armour's Opal, which cost the Spring Stock Farm Company $500. She is one of the most thoroughbred and handsomest cows ever brought South and an object of admiration to all who see her.

Manager Callison is making an ideal place of the Spring Park farm. The company has a large number of fine registered Herefords and Jerseys and in the course of a few years will have one of the finest stock farms in the South.

The West Main Merrymakers, an aggregation of young people who make their home on West Main street S., entertained a number of their friends at the annual function Monday evening. Justice Colman's Court.

Chas. Pinkoson, marshal of the city of Gainesville, who was arrested by Sheriff Fennell Saturday upon a warrant charging him with trespass, appeared Monday morning for trial before Justice Colman, but inasmuch as the plaintiffs did not appear against him, the case was continued.

The charge came out of a grievance resulting in the removal of a fence which it was alleged was encroaching upon public property, a public street. Marshal Pinkoson had his instructions from the street committee to remove the same and was proceeding under instruction, when the arrest followed. The fence has been removed, however.

Citrus County's Endorsement.

The Board of Public Instruction of Citrus county, in session a day or two recently, realizing the importance of locating the University of Florida in a desirable city, have unanimously endorsed Gainesville as the place, and will so instruct the Board of Control. This act is appreciated by friends of Gainesville, who will remember their Citrus county friends.

Just What Everyone Should Do.

Mr. J. T. Barber of Irwinville, Ga., always keeps a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand ready for instant use. Attacks of colic, cholera morbus and diarrhoea come on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt a doctor or go to the store for medicine. Mr. Barber says: "I have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is one of the best medicines I ever saw. I keep a bottle of it in my room as I have had several attacks of colic and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by all druggists.

Savannah Line Steamer Afire.

New York, June 19.—The steamer Kansas City, of the Savannah line, inward bound from Savannah, is reported to be on fire in her lower forward hold. The fire is said to be under control. The steamer has just left quarantine on the way to her pier in the North river, and the pier officials have been asked to have assistance ready when she arrives.

Practice Makes Perfect.

"I suppose your friend Tittlebat stutters as badly as ever?"

"Oh, no; he's quite an adept at it now."—Philadelphia Press.

Distinction is the consequence, never the object, of a great mind.—Alston.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease as that of C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach." Guaranteed by all druggists; price 50c.

Malagasy Etiquette.

A French conjurer many years ago during a performance at the court of Madagascar asked the queen through an interpreter if she would taste a glass of wine. On her refusal the conjurer, with simulated anger, emptied the glass over her, and the contents dropped in the shape of a rose into her majesty's lap. The court functionaries were so indignant at this proceeding that they jumped up from their seats, insisted upon the queen leaving the apartment and charged the performer with high treason. The unfortunate man had to be protected by the native troops from the fury of the populace and was compelled to leave the capital before daybreak.

Fooled.

A regiment of soldiers was drawn up for church parade in the barrack square, but the church was being repaired and could only hold half of them.

"Sergeant-major," shouted the colonel, "tell all the men who don't want to go to church to fall out on the reverse flank."

Of course a large number quickly and gladly availed themselves of the privilege.

"Now, sergeant-major," said the colonel, "dismiss all the men who did not fall out and march the others to church; they need it most."—London Standard.

Lucrezia Borgia.

Lucrezia Borgia was a singularly beautiful woman, with gray eyes and yellow hair. It was said of her that her upper eyelids drooped over more than half the iris, so as to give the eye a languid expression. She had a peculiar trick of looking steadily sideways at those with whom she conversed, and this peculiarity invariably excited distrust in those who observed it. She was singularly gifted in conversation and repartee and could hold her own in any company.

Where Coldness Is Cordiality.

The bore had gone. The whole family recognized him as a bore, but Mrs. Carter knew what was incumbent on her as a hostess famed for her courtesy.

"My dear Evelyn," she said in a gently chiding voice to her pretty daughter, "I think you cannot have realized how cold your tone was when you said 'Good evening' to Mr. Lamson."

"No, mother, perhaps I didn't," admitted Evelyn, "but I'm sure, on the other hand, that neither you nor father had any idea how warm your tones were when you said 'Good night' to him."—Youth's Companion.

Heart Weakness.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has made many hearts well after they have been pronounced hopeless. It has completely cured thousands, and will almost invariably cure or benefit every case of heart disease.

Short breath, pain around heart, palpitation, fluttering, dizzy, fainting and smothering spells should not be neglected. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and see how quick you will be relieved.

It cannot make a new heart, but will restore a sick one by strengthening the heart nerves and muscles, relieving the unnatural strain, and restoring its vitality.

"I had a very bad case of heart trouble. For six months I could not work. Last July I was plowing corn and feeling bad all day; in the afternoon in plowing one row I had to lay down, or fall down, three times. My heart throbbed as though it would burst through, and I had difficulty in getting my breath. I purchased a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and before I had used half of it I could lay down and sleep all night. Previously I had to get up from five to ten times a night. I have taken several bottles, and my heart is as regular as clock work. I feel like a new man, and can work considerable for an old man, 64½ years old."
H. D. McGILL, Frost, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

UNIQUE COLLEGE-LOCATION ARGUMENTS.

In some quarters the advocates of Lake City as the location for the Florida University are advancing the argument that Gainesville is not entitled to it because her delegates to both the late Senate and House bitterly opposed the Buckman bill, and thereby opposed the establishment of any university at all. To call things by their plain English names, those who advance such an argument are either idiots themselves, or imagine that all the rest of mankind are afflicted with idiocy. Before the enactment of the Buckman bill the State of Florida already had a university located at Lake City (greatly to its detriment) and five other flourishing schools of higher education. Gainesville had one of these, that from actual results can show throughout the State two successful Eleves in all the business and professional walks of life for everyone turned out by all the other five institutions combined. Gainesville's county delegation to both branches of the Legislature bitterly opposed the Buckman bill because they did not want this school status to be interferred with. They wanted their far-famed East Florida Seminary to be retained, and also wanted the Florida University and the Florida State College and all the other State schools to be retained just as they were.

Now since the Buckman bill has wiped them all from the map and provided for two brand new ones to take the place of the six abrogated ones, Gainesville, being a school-hungry town, wants one of the two. One of Lake City's most ardent friends in the late Senate earnestly and energetically supported and voted for the passage of the Buckman bill, thereby casting his vote in favor of the abrogation of the State University already located at Lake City; the argument can be used much more rationally, that Lake City is not entitled to it because her supporters and representatives advocated the abrogation of a university already established there.

The people of Florida are not, however, to be influenced by such flimsy and specious arguments as these in the important matter of the location of their university. There are some other far more vital questions that Lake City may be called upon to answer before she is selected as the new University town, and among these is the most vital question: Has not the State University, for years located at Lake City, been [illegible] frequently and persistently humiliated and brought into dire disrepute by [illegible] several, if not the majority, of [illegible] presidents vilified and charged with [illegible] too foul for print by people of that community; and has not this systematic vilification of its presidents been [illegible] recently carried by Lake City's county delegate even to the House of Representatives itself?

If the workers for [illegible] manifest the same ambition in [illegible] laudable calling, what an [illegible]on in some would give to business.

The people of Bradford [illegible] county are beginning to train themselves to drink lemonade and soda.

CANNING FRUITS.

There are many farmers and truck growers in Florida who are now beginning to realize that the canning factory will be a great help to them in this State. If the fruit that is too ripe for shipment could be cured at once it might be saved to the grower and he would be able to realize a fair price for same instead of it being a total loss.

If pineapples could be allowed to thoroughly ripen and then be canned, the goods would soon establish a demand that would command a fancy price in the Eastern markets as well as the Western. This has been already demonstrated.

With a factory for the manufacture of chow-chow and pickles, there could be a saving made of much of this truck which is now wasted. Green tomatoes and inferior cukes could be made up into chow-chow and every last bit of these crops could be saved and sold at a fair profit, while the labor employed in their preparation for the market would be a small benefit to the community where the factory is located.

The canning factory is what is needed and the capital required to build one of sufficient magnitude should be raised without much trouble.

GAINESVILLE THE PLACE.

If editorial expressions of the Florida press are any criterion of the choice of the people, Gainesville is the proper place for the location of the State University as provided for in the Buckman educational bill. Gainesville has in her favor the most central and most accessible location, excellent moral atmoshere, a very healthful locality, a people that are united and deeply imbued in all educational matters, ready to offer all reasonable inducements for the University. The buildings of the East Florida Seminary are already there, and with some comparatively inexpensive additions will be adequate to the demands. It seems to us that Gainesville can offer more valid reasons for the University than any other city in the State, and we believe the Board of Control will act wisely in selecting that city for the State University.—Titusville Star.

As indicated by reports to The Tradesman of Chattanooga, Tenn., for the week ending June 17th, the industrial development throughout the Southern States continues unabated. In a majority of the new industries established during the week, the capitalization runs into the millions of dollars. Our own State has a good showing, and the report is not complete, as several new concerns have not been reported.

Florida Postoffice Robbed.

Tampa, Fla., June 19.—The postoffice at Fort Dade, United States artillery post, on Egmont Key, was robbed of $285 last night, while the postmistress, Mrs. T. H. Morton, was in Tampa. When the steamer from Egmont Key arrived here deputies from the sheriff's office searched every person on board, including army officers, soldiers, civilians and women, but no trace of the money was found.

Killed Self and Four Babies.

Dubuque, Iowa, June 19.—Mrs. Paul Klas has killed her four small children and then committed suicide, at her home, near Kieler, Wis., 8 miles east of here. The woman used a large butcher knife, cutting each of the children's throats. The eldest child was 6 and the youngest a babe. The woman had been in ill health.

Duel Results Fatally.

Mt. Vernon, Ga., June 19.—Bill Connell and Elbert Sellars, both white, and who lived about 4 miles above this place, engaged in a shooting scrape last night, which resulted in the death of both parties. Details are meager, and it is impossible to find out the cause of the trouble.

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. FARMER LOSES HIS MONEY.

Man From North Carolina Proves An Easy Mark for Sharpers.

New York, June 19.—A sad experience with city sharpers has come into the life of Charles M. Brower, a truck farmer from Hickory, N. C. Just now he is at a loss as to how to get back home, having been relieved of all his funds.

Some weeks ago Brower received a letter offering him a farm in New Jersey near this city. The price was small, and he sent on $25 to bind the bargain. Donning his best clothes, he then set out for New York to inspect the farm. In his wallet were five $100 bills. Upon arriving Brower met the real estate agent and visited the New Jersey farm with him. The land was nothing but a swamp, and in a rage Brower demanded that his $25 be returned. The real estate agent laughed at him, but Brower had heard of District Attorney Jerome and to him he went. An investigation was made with the result that a warrant was issued for the real estate dealer. The old farmer was waiting about the criminal court building to see his prisoner when he began to cogitate over the expense of living in New York and unmindful of the passing pedestrians, sat down upon the stairs to figure up what he had spent and to count his money. There was still a balance of $460 in the wallet.

"How did I spend that $40?" he asked himself, and placing the wallet beside his papers on the steps, Brower began to figure up what had become of the money. A thief saw the wallet; a skillful kick sent it down the steps without the old man noticing it, and soon thief and wallet were far away.

"Got to be careful with the rest," said Brower, as he reached for the wallet. Then he saw there was none. His shouts attracted every one in the court house, but to no purpose.

Detectives were called, but they have no hope of recovering Brower's savings.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Geo. A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mills, Lawrence county, N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a well known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure." J. W. McCollum & Co.

POLICE SURPRISE BURGLARS.

Thieves Enter Fifth Avenue Mansions. All Are Captured.

New York, June 19.—Three burglars have been surprised while in the act of breaking in the Fifth avenue residence of E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate.

After an exciting chase in which two pistol shots were fired, one of the men was captured. Residents of the fashionable quarter were much excited by the shooting.

A house detective employed in the exclusive hotel just opposite Mr. Harriman's home discovered the thieves. Two of them were at work on the basement door and a third was acting as lookout. A policeman who arrived at the moment joined the chase.

The lookout escaped, but after a sharp chase during which the policeman used his revolver, one of the other men was captured. He gave information which later resulted in the arrest of another man and a boy. The Harriman family was not in the house, and the burglars would have, probably, been richly rewarded had they not been so opportunely interrupted.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon, as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by all druggists.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

They captured the place on June 2, an devacuated it almost immediately afterwards, taking away all the ammunition and stores but releasing the prisoners. The German officers escaped. The same forces of natives also captured Kalk Fontein on June 2, looting the place and taking away all horses, cattle and provisions.

...LT TASK.

...of the most diffi... business," said the ... the comb through the ... in the matter of combing ...'s hair? It is a rather singu... fact that you will find few barbers who have succeeded in solving the problem of combing a customer's hair just as he wants it, no matter how long the man may have been a patron of his chair. Of course there are a few exceptions to this rule. There are a few men in the world who do not care whether their hair is combed at all. With this class of men of course it doesn't make much difference how the barber combs the hair. But at least ninety out of every hundred men who patronize barber shops are very particular about the way you comb their hair unless you have inspired them with an extraordinary confidence. Unless, in fact, they have a better opinion of the barber's judgment than they have of their own the barber will miss the mark when he comes to put the finishing touches on the hair. The reason for this is not altogether a matter of vanity. There are a great many men whose looks are completely altered by a change in the way the hair is combed. Take the man, for instance, who is in the habit of parting his hair on the side, and part it in the middle, or the man who is in the habit of combing his hair down and parting it on one side—suppose you roach or pompadour the hair—can you not see what changes would follow in the general appearance of the man? This fact has much to do with making the combing of a man's hair a matter of much difficulty, and I do not exaggerate when I say it is one of the barber's hardest tasks."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

ROME VERSUS PARIS.

When the Eternal City Was the Art Center of the World.

There was a time when Rome was the world's art center. No artist's education was considered complete unless he spent some time in that city. There was always to be found there a coterie of strong men, many of them famous, in whose society the tyro might mingle and gain much by the companionship. That day has gone by, however, and a change has taken place. Paris has usurped the prerogative of the old city, and it is to her that the world now turns for new ideas of art. The Italian galleries remain, the masterpieces hang in their accustomed places, the sky is as blue, the air as soft and the outlook as lovely, but the glory of Roman art life has departed. The humanity that gave the art impetus, the interest to the student, has betaken itself from the Seven Hills to the peaceful Seine, where it flourishes in the wilder, more luxuriant growth, nurtured by the hothouse forcing of fin de siecle ideas, untrammeled by convention or tradition. For good or bad—and the judgment must be left to the reader—the fact remains that today Paris is the hub about which the wheel of art revolves.

Yet from Paris there go annually to the Italian capital a number of young men, winners of the annual competitions for the prize of Rome, to spend four years in the most idyllic manner as guests of the French republic at the Villa Medici, a beautiful palace owned by the government and specially arranged for their reception. These men have not won their spurs without hard work, without great preliminary training and many struggles.—Arthur Hoeber in Century.

CURIOUS OATHS.

Odd Ways of Swearing to the Truth of One's Statements.

When a Chinaman swears to tell the truth he kneels down, and a china saucer is given to him. The following oath is then administered: "You shall tell the truth and the whole truth. The saucer is cracked, and if you do not tell the truth your soul will be cracked like the saucer," when he breaks the saucer. Other symbolic variations of the Chinese oath are the extinguishing of a candle or cutting off of a cock's head, the light of the candle representing the witness' soul and the fate of the cock symbolizing the fate of a perjurer.

In certain parts of India tigers' and lizards' skins take the place of the Bible of Christian countries, and the penalty of breaking the oath is that in one case the witness will become the prey of a tiger and in the other that his body will be covered with scales like a lizard.

In Norwegian courts of law the prelude to the oath proper is a long homily on the sanctity of the oath and the terrible consequences of not keeping it. When the witness is duly crushed by the sense of his fearful responsibility the oath is administered while he holds aloft his thumb and fore and middle fingers as an emblem of the trinity.

In an Italian court the witness, with his right hand resting on an open Bible, declares, "I will swear to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." The Mohammedan takes the oath with his forehead reverently resting on the open Korán. He takes his "Bible" in his hand and, stooping low, as if in the presence of a higher power, slowly bows his head until it touches the book which to him is inspired.

In certain parts of Spain the witness when taking an oath crosses the thumb of one hand over the forefinger of the other and, kissing this symbolic, if primitive, cross, says, "By this cross I swear to tell the truth."

Deferred.

"What," asked the youth, "was the happiest moment of your life?"

"The happiest moment of my life," answered the sage of Sageville, "is yet to come."

"When do you expect it?" queried the inquisitive youngster.

"When people cease to ask fool questions," replied the philosophy dispenser.—Chicago News.

Right Now.

After all, what's the use? No matter how hard we may fight, we lose in the end; no matter how much we may seemingly conquer, in the end we are wretchedly beaten; no matter how much we are in the public eye, within two weeks after our death we are too dead to be talked about. There is only one time in the world, and that is now.—Lawrence (Kan.) World.

Stimulation Without Irritation.

In case of stomach and liver trouble the proper treatment is to stimulate these organs without irritating them. Ovino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills or ordinary cathartics. It does not nauseate or gripe as it is mild and pleasant to take. J. W. McCollum & Company.

THE HEATHEN ESKIMO.

He Is Good Humored With His Queer Customs and Beliefs.

Professor Mylius Eriksen, writing of the heathen Eskimo in northern Greenland, says: "He lacks imagination, but his powers of observation are very acute. In spite of the fact that his life is an uninterrupted struggle for existence the Greenlander is always in a good humor, and his boisterous laugh can be heard sounding far over ice and snow fields. His way of telling stories is short and abrupt, but comical features are strongly emphasized. His stories consist generally of his own adventures, old legends about fights with neighbors and wild animals, about severe winters and great famines, about the creation of the world and about supernatural beings. It is considered highly creditable to be able to tell stories so long that the audience is lulled to sleep. An orator who achieves this feat is solemnly welcomed on the next morning, and every one thanks him profusely for the pleasure which he accorded the night before.

"Ideas of beauty are peculiarly developed in the heathen Eskimo. He regards beauty solely from the standpoint of utility. For instance, a rock projecting out of water only appears beautiful to him when it is visited in summer by water birds which breed there. A foaming torrent is only beautiful if it contains many salmon. Clothes are not put together with any idea of regularity of color, only their practical utility being considered. Huts are made of snow and stones, with domed tops, but without any architectural design.

"Only the spirit conjurers (angakoks) occupy an exalted position, being regarded as priests and doctors. Their task is to establish a connection between the visible world and the hidden spirits, and in this way they obtain a certain influence over their neighbors. The angakok asks his spirit for advice and then informs the invalid that his illness has been sent by the spirits as punishment for certain deeds."

A TALE OF TWO SCOUTS.

Narrow Escape From a Rattler and a Band of Indians.

In Cyrus Townsend Brady's "Indian Fights and Fighters" is a tale of two scouts, Trudeau and Stillwell, who carried to General Carpenter through an Indian infested country the news that Major Forsyth was being besieged in the sands of Beecher's island by a thousand warriors. Here is one incident of their journey:

"During this day a large party of scouting Indians halted within 100 feet of the wallow where the scouts were hiding. Simultaneously with their arrival a wandering rattlesnake made its appearance in front of the two scouts, who were hugging the earth and expecting every minute to be discovered.

"In his way the rattlesnake was as deadly as the Indian. The scouts could have killed him easily had it not been for the proximity of the Cheyennes. To make the slightest movement would call attention to their hiding place. Indeed, the sinister rattle of the venomous snake before he struck would probably attract the notice of the alert Indians. Between the savage reptile and the savage men the scouts were in a frightful predicament, which young Stillwell, a lad of amazing resources, instantly and effectually solved.

"He was chewing tobacco at the time, and as the snake drew near him and made ready to strike Stillwell completely routed him by spitting tobacco juice in his mouth and eyes and all over his head. The rattlesnake fled. He could not stand such a dose. The Indians presently moved on, having noticed nothing, and so ended perhaps the most terrible half hour the two men had ever experienced."

A HAPPY MARRIAGE.

Henry LeRoy and Miss Eliza Dell Were United in Matrimony Monday.

There was a happy marriage at the home of Col. and Mrs. John B. Dell Monday morning at 11 o'clock, when their charming daughter, Miss Eliza, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Henry LeRoy, Rev. Thos. P. Hay of the First Presbyterian Church officiating.

While it has been known among a few friends of the young lady that she was soon to be married, no one knew positively of the date, with the result that the function created some surprise among her acquaintances.

The groom is one of Alachua's leading young men. He is a nephew of Mrs. F. E. Williams and a member of the firm of the Williams Company. He is regarded very highly as a business man and is destined to become quite prominent in business circles. The bride is one of Gainesville's most popular young ladies. She is a general social favorite and will be greatly missed among the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy departed on the noon train for Alachua, which place they will make their future home. The Sun, with other friends, extends congratulations.
